FACE OF AMERICA: HAWAII

Wolftrap Foundation for the Performing Arts s/c

Face of America is Wolf Trap's artistic adventure series which uses the rich language of the performing arts to celebrate our country's National Parks. This year's performance will take us on an artistic journey to the islands of Hawaii through dynamic music, performance and a giant screen multi-media high Definition display of the landscape. Show highlights include the ancient language of traditional hula and spectacular footage of Volcanoes National Park. We will have very good loge center seats, even better than many orchestra seats, since much of the show includes images high on the screen. A pre-show bring-your-own picnic will be optional and based on the weather. You will receive details of the picnic about one week prior to the performance. You will receive your tickets about one week prior to the performance. You will be responsible for your own transportation.

GETTYSBURG BATTLEFIELD AND EISENHOWER FARM s/c

Gettysburg, Pennsylvania

Join us as we journey back in time...

We will begin our visit with a 2 hour guided bus tour of the Gettysburg National Military Park and hear fascinating stories related to the various aspects of the battles in the region. Following our tour we will have a buffet lunch at The Historic 1776 Dobbin House Tavern. The restaurant also boasts a B&B, curiosity shop, in-house bakery and secret underground railroad slave hideout. After lunch we will visit the presidential and retirement home of Dwight D. Eisenhower. The 189 acre farm sported a show herd of Angus cattle and served as a presidential retreat, temporary White House and meeting place for world leaders. We will tour the home, grounds, barns and cattle operation, which is located adjacent to the Gettysburg Battlefield. ADVANCED REGISTRATION IS NECESSARY. TRIP COST INCLUDES TOUR GUIDE, ENTRANCE FEES LUNCH AND TRANSPORTATION.
